

MARCEL STORME ESSAY PRIZE

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Association of Procedural Law calls the “Marcel Storme Essay Prize”, to be awarded during the IAPL Conference that will be held in Salamanca (Spain) from 17th to 19th October 2018.

The following rules will apply:

(1) Prizes

Two prizes may be awarded (a first prize and a second prize).

The prize will consist in the publication of the winning essays in the International Journal of Procedural Law. Additionally, the first prize will be granted 1000 euros, and the second 500 euros.

(2) Candidates

Candidates shall not have reached their 36th birthday before the deadline for submission of the essay.

The prize will not be restricted to the members of the IAPL.

(3) Essays

The maximum length of the essays will be 20 pages, including footnotes and bibliography (A4 size, Times New Roman 12, Line spacing 1,5, margins 3 cm).

The essays shall be written in one of the official languages of the Conference (English, Portuguese and Spanish).

The essays shall not have been previously published and candidates should refrain from publishing them elsewhere until it has been decided whether the essay will be published by the Association.

A candidate shall not be permitted to submit more than one essay.

Co-authored works will not be eligible.

The essay must deal exclusively with the topic “Evidence and its Challenges”.

(4) Submissions

The candidates will have to submit an electronic copy (together with a c.v. and a list of publications) to the following e-address: contact@iaplaw.org

The submission must be accompanied by a declaration, signed by the candidate, that the essay complies with the extent limit (see above) and that the essay is the candidate’s personal work, written without any other person’s assistance. The Association reserves the right to subject the essay to antiplagiarism software and to make its own investigations regarding authenticity.

The submission deadline will end on 1st September 2018.

(5) Jury and award

The prize will be decided by a jury composed by Prof. Federico Carpi, Prof. Paula Costa e Silva, and Prof. Luiz Guilherme Marinoni.
